RE: Plaintiffs' request for courtroom technology in State of New York, et al. v. U.S. Dep't of Commerce, et al., 18-CV-2921 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman,

Plaintiffs in New York v. Department of Commerce write to make courtroom setup requests to accommodate Plaintiffs' trial technology needs.

Plaintiffs are requesting permission to enter Courtroom 110 to set up a small technology table in the first row of the court gallery for John Jay, plaintiffs' trial technology consultant. Plaintiffs also request permission to set up an extra computer monitor, connecting cables, and HDMI switching equipment that will be placed at the extra table.

If the court were to grant permission, Mr. Jay would be available to set this up this afternoon, and will bring all of the equipment referenced above.

Respectfully submitted,
